

HOW FBAS PLANS TO PLUG GAP IN JUDGE NUMBERS

Filmed at a secret location, evidence has emerged of the Federation's new training scheme which may be put into place to alleviate falling numbers of qualified Judges.

This is all part of innovations for judging, following recent report of a 'bottom of your pond' inspection service being developed in the Eastleigh area.